

THE ROUND OAK BASE BURNER

New special flue construction gives additional heating surface—that's where we get it, makes the ROUND OAK BASE BURNER ahead of all the old types. 40 per cent more heat with the same amount of coal, and it's a beautiful stove.

"College Town" A BIG SUCCESS

Play Given by the Junior Class of the Alliance High School Makes Decided Hit

The Junior Class of the Alliance High school is certainly there when it comes to putting on a good rip-roaring play. They have all others backed way off the map, and say, when it comes to a high school orchestra, Alliance can boast of about the best in the state.

Although it was just a little late when the curtain rose for the first act, everyone was kept in good humor by the excellent music furnished. The first act started off with a very true picture of a college boarding house, and the humorous complications set in immediately. The audience was kept in an uproar all thru the act. And, speaking of audiences, the crowd that turned out last night, would have done justice to Hammerstein's in New York. One of the worst complications that arose during the first act, was the surprising number of Aunt Jane's. It was very well smoothed over, however, by the leading character, Jimmie Cavendish, just as the curtain fell, leaving the house in an uproar.

The second act starts off with a big gathering of faculty members at a dinner party given for them. One of the college cut-ups comes in and discovering that the guests are all in the dining room, decides that the punch is slightly weak and proceeds to fix it up according to his own tastes. The same punch later, becomes a little too much for the educate college professor, and being henpecked, it occurs to him that then is a good chance to assert his rights. He does so and meets with very disastrous results. Just about that time the real Aunt Jane appears on the scene, but is hurried off before she has had time to cause any investigation. The curtain falls just after one of the male Aunt Jane's has rebelled and has started to disrobe.

The third and last act appears on the sidelines of a football game between our college and their hated rivals. The important part of this act is the culmination of a love affair which started in the first act, between Jimmie Cavendish and a southern girl, Miss "Jim" Channing. The whole affair seems to rest on the game, and as Jimmie is on the team, he does his best and finally makes a touchdown just a few seconds before time is called. His touchdown wins the game and the southern girl is his.

The whole play went off in fine shape and was remarkably free from the little mistakes which are common to amateur dramatics. Everyone had his money's worth. Several songs during the performance added a touch of spice and were much enjoyed. The Herald wishes to congratulate the Juniors on their marked success, due largely to the untiring efforts of Miss Ethel Nolan as director.
